

National Competitive Trail Horse Association

"Uniting Trail Riders of America"

NCTHA

NCTHA is primarily a record keeping organization for its members who compete in several types of recognized competitive trail rides. The organization sanctions STC, DTC & TTC rides, provides low cost blanket insurance to STC, DTC & TTC ride managers, offers dual sanctioning for rides in existing trail organizations, maintains a pool of judges & volunteers, has a clinic/mentorship program and offers year-end awards. Its goals are to: provide a single calendar of all recognized rides, maintain lifetime member horse mileage records, provide national year-end awards for its members, be a representative of all trail riding organizations in advertising, business & government.
